Acknowledgments

Marc I. Steinberg—I wish to thank my coauthors on this project, esteemed academics and good friends of mine, who have made this project come to fruition. This was one of the most enjoyable projects I have experienced and it is due to their courtesy, professionalism, and superb scholarship. I also extend my appreciation to Dean Jennifer Collins of the SMU Dedman School of Law for her support of this project, the John C. Biggers Faculty Research Fund for providing funding for my summer 2015 research grant, and to Ms. Carolyn Yates for her excellent administrative assistance.

I dedicate this book to my children—Alex, Avi, and Phillip (Bear)—with all of my love.

Wendy Gerwick Couture—I wish to thank my students at the University of Idaho College of Law, whose creativity and curiosity motivated my work on this project. I also extend my deepest appreciation to my coauthors, whose distinguished careers I hope to emulate. It was truly an honor to work with you. Finally, I wish to thank the University of Idaho College of Law for supporting me in this undertaking.

I dedicate this book to my parents—Cliff and Suzanne Gerwick—with gratitude and love.

Michael J. Kaufman—Thanks so much to my wonderful coauthors, who exemplify extraordinary wisdom and grace in everything they do. Thanks as well to John Wunderlich and Sean Langan for their invaluable research and editorial assistance.

I dedicate this book to my family, and to my extended Loyola family.

Daniel J. Morrissey—I would like to acknowledge the encouragement of Gonzaga Law School Dean Jane Korn and Associate Dean Jason Gillmer and the helpful assistance of Patrick Charles and Ashley Sundin, respectively the Director and the Reference/Research Librarian of Gonzaga University’s Law Library. I would also like to thank Dean Lyn Entzeroth, Head Law Librarian Melanie Nelson, and Assistant Librarians Richard Todd and Mark Mayer of the University of Tulsa Law School where much of my work on this book was done.

I dedicate this to Mary Beth, Greg, and Graham—the three greatest joys of my life.
